

I oppose the CBA's attempt to enable junk telephone calls into my home through their request for a business relationship exemption to be placed on our Telephone Privacy law. Most attempts by telemarketers are while I am cooking dinner and helping with homework. Telemarketers, while I understand their attempt to make a living, are infringing upon mine.